in expressing our sincere and affectionate appreciation of the manly and Christian traits of character which distinguished his life, endearing him to a large circle of friends wherever known.

We truly feel that a noble man has passed away, a man who has fully and faithfully discharged the duties which belonged to him, in his home, among his relatives and friends and in the city which for many years has demanded and appreciated his service.

Rev. S. ... That we extend to his immediate family the Christian sympathies which you on this occasion and pray, the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit of God may sustain and bless us all in this affliction until we, too, are gathered to the Great Circle of waiting friends above.
