

1914

The Thirty-eighth annual Reunion of the Adams Family was held at the home of Nathaniel Severy, So. Carthage, on Aug. 21, 1914.

Called to order by Alexis Smith who presided in place of the President, A. L. Adams, who was absent. Mrs. A. H. Adams was chosen Secretary pro tem.

The day was dull and not propitious for a large gathering but we were kindly greeted and made welcome by the family and a bountiful picnic dinner with hot coffee was served at noon to the eighteen members present.

An motion of A. H. Adams it was voted that the officers of last year hold over for another term.
