

1919.

The Forty-third annual reunion of the Adams Family was held Aug. 15, at the home of Charles W. Adams, East Wilton. The morning was rainy, but cleared before noon, and nearly seventy-five members of the family quickly assembled, and all did justice to a bountiful picnic dinner.

Soon afterward the meeting was called to order by President Fred L. Adams. The report of the secretary was read and accepted. Letters were read from Silas Adams, Waterville; F. S. Adams, Bowdoinham, and Mrs. Adelia Adams Christian, Onawa, Iowa.

The officers were then elected by nomination, —

President — Herbert Aldrich.

Vice President — A. H. Adams.

Sec. & Treas. — Mrs. Lizzie Fletcher.

Executive Com. — Charles A. Adams, Brion Fletcher, C. N. Adams.

Entertainment Com. — Mrs. Mabel Rowe, Mrs. Glen Webster, Helen Adams.

Table Com. — Mr. & Mrs. Herbert Aldrich, Fred Adams, Charlene Adams, Mattie Fletcher, Belle Adams.

An invitation was given by Herbert Aldrich to meet at his home in 1920, and was accepted.

A collection, amounting to $4.00, was taken

Remarks were made about the printing of the Adams Family, and another

Died at Farmington, Me. Oct. 8, 1918. Mrs. Adella, wife of Clifford Blanchard.
North Jay, " Apr. 20, 1919. Ora M. Adams.
Bedford, Mass. Mar. 7, 1919. Harry Hodgdon.

collection, of $4.00., taken to help the cause along. A vote was then taken to contribute $2.00 from the collection for expenses, thus making $6.00 to add to the fund for printing.

The Entertainment Committee presented the following program; -

Singing, America. - by all.
Instrumental music - Floris Fletcher.

Song - Helen Adams.

Reading - Ella Adams.

Song - Floris Fletcher.

Singing, God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again.

A rising vote of thanks was given Charles and Charlena Adams for their hospitality, and the meeting adjourned.

Treasurer's Report.

Amount on hand - - - -	$ 4.47
Collection - - - -	4.00
	8.47
Printing 125 Post Cards - 2.00
Contributed to book fund - 2.00
	4.00
Amount in Treas. Aug. 15, 1919 - -	4.47

Charlena R. Adams,
Sec. & Treas.